

Timeless

*Once upon a time,
So the fairytale goes,
You and I Became.*

But then it happened and our souls departed.

I'm not broken hearted.

But I've been.

I've been alone.

Could it be that I've seen you before.

I know you.

I know you.

We are Timeless

We are Timeless

We are Timeless

But nevertheless we are home.

Time that never ending road

That never ending beat of life.

The lives ahead.

The lives we've shared.

The lives we've lived before.

And whether we die or live,

Whether we meet again,

Whether we die or live,

My love will be the same.
